MOTION For Request
OF Alternative payment
Method

Comes now That:

The petitioner named herein does plead upon the mercy of the court. Petitioner was granted an extension from May, 21, 2007 to an including June 4, 2007 to pay 134.36 initial partial filing fee. The petitioner has appealed to the court on May 14, 2007, and pled his cause to the honorable court, because he knew he did not have anything like the requested fee, and had no way of obtaining that amount any time soon. The petitioner is in every way indigent and any previous funds over a previous (6) month period does no justice to petitioner's present or future condition. Petitioner's constitutional and civil rights are being violated and his poverty is due to these violations, petitioner was assisted in order to provide assistance to a completely helpless mother, and to aid in his upkeep for personal items he needed while incarcerated, these funds were limited and have been depleted. The petitioner's pay scale is $5.25 per month. He pleads with The Honorable Court to sympathize in this matter to the extent to declare indigency or waive the initial filing fee for petitioner, and allow him Justice Through his petition of Coram Nobis Mandamus, petitioner has been denied his due process.

The State has allowed his paid legal Counsel to Rob him of his $1600,00 payment, by letting Counsel withdraw without filing one of his present prose motions to suppress, along with several other motions that would have exonerated this petitioner, The State then left Petitioner without Counsel for months and refused to respond to detainee requests as required by the I.A.D. Act. and denied speedy trial right to petitioner as well by Appointing an attorney that was at conflict with petitioner prior to appointment. after weeks of writing and pleading, The State Court Judge, dismissed the attorney at his request, instead of plaintiff's motion and appointed new Counsel, the same Counsel as his co-defendant in the Criminal Case. The Court has repeatedly denied due process to this petitioner and has prejudiced his case, and has continued this malicious prosecution for charges it cannot prove and has lost the credibility for through the malicious retaliatory acts of its only witness, the prejudices in this prosecution goes against all the ethics of fair jurisprudence. The petitioner Pleads with this Court to intervene, and not let his indigency be the cause of his rights being abandoned. the Federal Jurisdiction in this matter came through the unlawful acts of a rogue law enforcement official Lt. Steven wood. This officer's termination for acts of a discreditable nature warrants not only dismissal of all State charges, but remand release, petitioner does not mind signing any agreement to pay the court for its assistance so he can proceed and be relieved of this tainted prosecution. he requests assistance with complying with the court's May 15th court order and respectfully requests the speedy order for the state to comply with Caram nobis mandamus
